

William Crawford to George Washington, January 15, 1774, Letters to Washington and Accompanying Papers. Published by the Society of the Colonial Dames of America. Edited by Stanislaus Murray Hamilton.

FROM CAPTAIN WILLIAM CRAWFORD.

SPRING GARDIN Jany. 15th 1774

DR SIR/

Inclosed is the Expences of Last Summers Trip a Survaying the Soliders Land, and two Small things omited in the former Accounts four Bags Roted out the first Trip in the Wett weather and the Kaggs was let go on the Difrent time com up for Provision to people and maid use of going Down to put flower and Salt in

Should you have Setled with the Company for the hole never mind them you may Strick them out of the account

I do not Remember wheather I mentioned Coll Muses Account to you in my other letters, he Drew an order to me on you which Sum is the Expenche of Deviding the Ld. and I know he intends Charging you More, but I do not think he Ought to be paid any Other, as he has Expended Double as much as there was any Occasion for

I have Drawn an order on you in fever of John Hite for fifty pounds, which pay when it suits you; I have wrote him I must wait your time; as you had not got your Affairs Setled, I cold not Draw Emedetly on you for Cash, as I did not now that you had Receved any part of the mony.

Library of Congress

I Should be Glad if you can help my Brother Vale. Crawford to any money or any thing he wants without Disoblidgeing your self; and any thing you want in the Spring that I can help you to it shall be Ready for you, if you will let me know by the first Opportunity I Intend Publick house keeping and I am prepared for it now, As I can Live no Longer without that, or Ruining my Self, Such number Constantly Traveling the Road and no body Keeping any thing for horses but my Self, som Days now If I had Rum I could mak three pounds a day: I have sent for Rum by V Crawford, and can Supply you with what you want as Cheap as you can bring it hear for, if you Carry it your Self Your favour done me now among others Shall be thankfully

Repaid by your most Humb. Sarvt— W .. CRAWFORD